*"There was a knight,
a most distinguished man, Who from that day on which he first began to ride abroad had followed chivalry, truth, honour, generousness, and courtesy."*

Chaucer

The Program

Ever wondered what it felt like to be a knight? During this unique presentation Sir Randall wears a mid-15th Century replica "harness," or suit of armour. He speaks to your group about a knight's training and his armour and weapons. Audience volunteers help illustrate the progression of armour and the affects of the weapons which were designed to penetrate them! A fun talk with modern analogies and a few surprises keep the attention of youngsters and adults.

History comes alive during the hands-on part of the program. Everyone is welcome to touch and wear examples of museum-quality armour such as gauntlets, chain maille, helmets, and more!

Sir Randall

Randy Cieszynski has 20 years of experience conducting hands-on educational programs for audiences of all ages—including school children and adults. He has a large personal library of reference materials and has made multiple study trips to England, Europe, and most of the United States-based armour collections. He earned a B.A. in Pastoral Studies with an emphasis in ancient Greek and youth work and has a deep love of history. In addition, he has built many of the armour pieces he brings. He is an armourer, artist, musician, and true Renaissance man.
